

Leicester,
Mond, 25th, 1868.

Dear Garrison,

Yr. first rec., and I have but 5 min. for answer,
- Saturday will, I doubt not,
serve as all, quite as well as Friday. At any rate, it would not be the thing at all,
to take your time on Friday,
I you to lecture in the evng,
- You may expect ~~it~~ to be on Sat. at 11, unless you meantime hear from me to the contrary. When I wrote before, I was not apprised of your lecture on Friday, or I sh<sup>d</sup>.
by no means have named that day,

Extremely sorry to hear that your catarrh, &c. are troubling you;—perhaps it is the inevitable accompaniment!

The "Standard" is really too bad, and Powell is to be pitied;— all the more that he (probably) doesn't know that he is.

Truly Yrs
in haste

S. May Jr
y

A